

THE RAP GUIDE TO EVOLUTION

WRITTEN AND PERFORMED BY
BABA BRINKMAN

DARWIN'S GOT IT GOING ON!

Baba Brinkman's international hit show The Rap Guide to Evolution explores the surprising links between Darwin's theory and today's hip-hop culture. Musicians compete for space in our iTunes playlists, peacocks display with feathers while rappers display with bling, and a white boy from Canada discovers the scientific appeal of Afrocentrism.

The Rap Guide to Evolution won a Fringe First Award for "Best New Writing" at the Edinburgh Fringe, a Drama Desk Award Nomination for "Outstanding Solo Performance" off-Broadway, and landed Baba Brinkman a spot performing on MSNBC's The Rachel Maddow Show. In 2012 he even opened for Stephen Hawking at the Seattle Science Festival, entertaining the famous physicist with his unique Darwinian rhymes.

Baba Brinkman is a recent recipient of the National Center for Science Education's "Friend of Darwin Award" for his efforts to improve the public understanding of evolution.
